

Hong Kong Economic Association 2015 Biennial Workshop

Economic Analysis in Competition Law Enforcement: Implications for the Region.

Programme

Organizers/Sponsors: HKEA jointly with HKUST, CUHK, Lingnan University
Date: October 24, 2015 (Saturday)
Venue: 15 th floor, Hong Kong Club Building, Central, Hong Kong
Welcome Remarks by Professor Leonard Cheng, President of Lingnan University (9:15)
Presenter	Paper Title	Time:
The Hon. Anna Wu, Chairperson of Hong Kong Competition Commission	Opening Remarks	9:20 to 9:45
Rosa Abrantes-Metz, Global Economics Group and NYU	Keynote Speech: “Detecting Conspiracies”	9:45 to 10:35
Coffee Break (10:35 to 11:00)
Thomas Ross, University of British Columbia	“Long-Term Contracts as Barriers to Entry with Differentiated Products”	11:00 to 11:45
Guofu Tan, University of South California	“Economic Analysis in China’s Anti-Monopoly Law Enforcement”	11:45 to 12:30
Lunch Break (12:30 to 13:30)
Panel Discussion	“Competition Economics for Small Economies” Leonard Cheng, LU, Commissioner of HKCC; Derek Ritzmann, HKCC Thomas Ross, University of British Columbia Tanya Tang, Rajah and Tann Singapore Ping Lin (Convener), Lingnan University	13:30 to 14:30
Annie Xue, PwC Legal China	“Vertical Integration Involving IP Issues: The China Perspective”	14:30 to 15:10
Coffee Break (15:10 – 15:30)
Junji Xiao, CUHK	“Determinants of Observed Vertical Restraints in China’s Automobile Sector”	15:30 to 16:10
C.K. Woo, Hong Kong Institute of Education	“Hong Kong’s Electricity Market: What Do Consumers Want?”	16:10 to 17:00
Ping Lin, Lingnan University	“Ex Ante Merger Control vs. Ex Post Control of Abuse: Contrasting Approaches of Hong Kong and the Mainland China	17:00 to 17:40
Open Discussion: 17:40 to 18:00 Workshop Ends: 18:00		