

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Hong Kong Economic Association is intended to be a channel through which economists, business executives, government officials, as well as others interested in the working of the economy come together and share views and insights on economic issues of common concern and thus extend the frontiers of economic knowledge.

The Association is a fully accredited member of the International Economic Association in Paris.

The Association welcomes anyone, local or overseas, who shares the same interest in furthering the above objectives to join as a member.

Members can participate in the Association's academic, intellectual, and social functions at subsidized rates and will receive the Pacific Economic Review, published by Blackwell Publishers in the U.K. 3 times a year. Members receive a 50% discount on submission fees when submitting to the Pacific Economic Review.

ACTIVITIES

The activities of the Association include:

- lectures, seminars, and luncheon speeches by local and overseas experts.
- forums on topical subjects
- conferences
- social activities such as dinners and cocktail parties
- publication of the Pacific Economic Review (formerly the Hong Kong Economic Papers).

The Pacific Economic Review has a strong international editorial board and is committed to a double-blind refereeing process to ensure high quality in published papers. Its operation is supervised by a Steering Committee comprising representatives from all seven tertiary institutions in Hong Kong, including the:

1. Chinese University of Hong Kong
2. City University of Hong Kong
3. Hong Kong Polytechnic University
4. Hong Kong Baptist University
